

Being a resident of Indiana, just wanted to say that our state's telephone privacy laws have been working wonderfully since their inception. We are no longer have our evenings disrupted by phone calls - sometimes 10 to 15 an evening. Now we may get one. Do not do anything to supercede the telephone privacy laws of Indiana. Thank you.